

END NOTE

» “Super indulgent. Super delicious,” says Ms. Rockamann of Brian Pelletier’s creations. Pecan bark, $2.50. Kakao, 314-489-5617, kakaochocolate.com.

» These “little bottles of herbal goodness” are 100 percent natural—and made right here in town. BLENDS perfume oils, $24.95 for three. Irie Star, 314-802-7687, iriestar.com.

« Ms. Rockamann uses this cute kitchen composter to reduce food waste while keeping odors at bay via its built-in charcoal filter. R.S.V.P. bamboo Compost Pail, $49.95. Home Eco, 4611 Macklind, 314-351-2000, home-eco.com.

LOCAL ECOLOGY

EARTHDANCE FARMS CO-FOUNDER MOLLY ROCKAMANN SHARES HER FAVE GREEN PRODUCTS.

As she’s worked to establish an organic farm and add a sustainable line of shirts to her family’s T-shirt business, Sportsprint, Molly Rockamann has gained an intimate knowledge of St. Louis’ green scene. We asked her to tell us about some of St. Louis’ coolest eco items.

—MARGARET BAUER

Artisans Garnet Baker and Katie Miller make recycled jewelry from license plates and more. Earrings, $26–$56. Scarlett Garnet, 816-914-5739, scarlettgarnet.com.

The spray’s sumptuous, yet it saves up to a gallon each minute. Roadrunner showerhead, $39.97. Green It! Home Consultants, 314-933-4733, greenihtc.com.

For great local produce—plus live music and art—Ms. Rockamann suggests the Ferguson and Maplewood farmers’ markets. fergusonfarmersmarket.com, schlafly.com/market.shtml.

» This line “cleans just about everything,” says Ms. Rockamann. “The labeling cracks me up, too—gotta love a cleaning product with a sense of humor!” Best of all, it can all be refilled at Home Eco. $6.99–$7.29. Better Life, 877-256-4767, cleanhappens.com.

PHOTOGRAPHY BY WHITNEY CURTIS